Your mortgage, car payments, utility bills, student loans, retirement savings, kids' college funds... life is expensive.

How would your loved ones be affected if you passed away and they were left without your financial resources? Would they be able to pay their everyday expenses or would they need to make sacrifices?

Losing a loved one is never easy. The right life insurance coverage can simplify the lives of your loved ones, while protecting their financial future.

What is Group Term Life Insurance?

Group Term Life Insurance is offered through your employer and pays a benefit to your beneficiary if you pass away during a specific period of time (known as a "term"). The "term" of this coverage is generally one year, renewing on an annual basis with your other employer-offered benefits.

How can life insurance help?

Below are a few examples of how your life insurance benefit could be used (coverage amounts may vary):

- Pay off any remaining medical bills, funeral costs and debts
- Provide ongoing financial support to your family
- Keep your family in your home by paying off the mortgage
- Fund your children's education

Why should I enroll through my employer?

- Premium amounts are deducted from your paycheck, so you don't have to worry about paying another bill
- You may take coverage with you if you leave your employer or are no longer eligible for coverage through your employer

How much coverage do I need?

Every person is different, as are their life insurance needs. The sample worksheet provides an example to help you start thinking about how much coverage is right for you. If you are interested in a more comprehensive worksheet, visit Voya.com and click on "Life Insurance Needs Calculator" under the "Tools" section.

Sample worksheet
Final expenses	$10,000	$ _____
Debts	$8,000	$ _____
Housing costs (Remaining mortgage, rent expense, utilities, etc.)	$232,000	$ _____
Education fund	$0	$ _____
Other	$0	$ _____
Total	$250,000	$ _____

How much does it cost?

The monthly cost of life insurance varies based on your age and how much you want to purchase, but it is very likely that your monthly premiums will be less than your monthly coffee or entertainment budget.

Do I need to provide health information?

Depending on the amount of coverage you select, you may need to fill out a form called "Evidence of Insurability" for all applicable family members. This form includes questions about current and past health conditions. The insurer may request additional information before approving or denying coverage.

Are there any causes of death not covered?

Yes. If you commit suicide within two years of the date your life insurance coverage or increase in coverage started; only the basic (employer-paid) amount, if any, will be payable to your beneficiary. (May vary by state.)

Meet the Wilsons

Mark and Jodi Wilson had a busy life filled with work, sports and their three children. Mark was the breadwinner of the family and worked as a construction manager. Jodi had quit her job to stay home with the children when their second child was born. Mark had been suffering from recurring headaches and after seeing many doctors, was diagnosed with an inoperable brain tumor.

Fortunately for the Wilson family, Mark had purchased Group Term Life Insurance coverage through his employer. When Mark passed away, Jodi was able to use the life insurance benefit to pay off the remaining mortgage and cover Mark's funeral. There was even enough money to support the family while she transitioned from being a stay-at-home mother to a working single parent.

Expenses covered by Mark's life insurance benefit:

$180,000	Total life insurance benefit
-$8,000	Funeral costs
-$75,000	Remaining mortgage
$97,000	Everyday expenses (utilities, car, groceries, etc.)
